

Largest Naval Games Cover 12 Million Square Miles in Pacific Ocean

U. S. Officials Will Act Under Strictest Secrecy and "Peepers" May Be Taken Captive, Planes Fired Upon.

60,000 ENGAGED

More Than Half of Personnel, 150 Warships, 500 Planes in Games.

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—American naval maneuvers beginning in the Pacific ocean next month, officials disclosed today, will cover more than twice the territory utilized in last year's mock battles.

The maneuvers, largest in the nation's naval history, will progress over 12,000,000 square miles or nearly six weeks. Last year's war games, highlighted by the theoretical destruction of Honolulu, involved only 5,000,000 square miles.

The navy high command indicated that the newly-strengthened rules for secrecy on ship construction will be carried over into the maneuvers.

To back up the secrecy efforts, fact command will have a rule issued by Secretary Swanson last December, to the effect that "peepers" may be driven off with gunfire, or taken captive. Navy lawyers also have held that anti-aircraft guns may be fired, after due warning, at strange planes flying over the area without permission.

Large Forces.

Nearly 60,000 officers and men—more than half the navy's personnel—will be engaged in direct action of the 150 warships and 500 aircraft planes from the Pacific coast to Hawaii and from Alaska to Samoa. The 1937 games involved 135 vessels and 474 planes.

Announcement of the forthcoming maneuvers served to dramatize the administration's request for a 20 per cent expansion of the navy's fighting force. The house will debate the program early next month.

Senator Thomas (D-Utah), referring to newly-disclosed connections between Germany and Japan as a collapse of moral pressure against aggression, said:

This means rearmament and big navies. We will be drawn into the armament race."

Maverick Protests.

Representative Maverick (D-Texas) protested meanwhile in a radio speech against what he called following the lead of Great Britain in building more battleships. He urged the American people against being "misled, deceived and worked into a war spirit."

The cause of peace was stressed in a message carried from President Roosevelt to newly-inaugurated President Ortiz of Argentina by the army's goodwill fliers. The message said:

"Our two republics nurtured with similar ideals have lived together peacefully in a troubled world for over a century, and it is my hope that they will continue to cooperate efficaciously for the preservation of peace."

Hull's Appraisal.

Secretary Hull added this appraisal of Ortiz:

"He has ratified his faith in the preservation of Democratic institutions. He has emphasized the ideal of continental solidarity, to the exclusion of political principles and problems which are alien to this hemisphere. He has dedicated the Argentine nation to the high ideals of peace and progress. All of these objectives are shared by my country."

Meanwhile, Rear Admiral William G. DuBois, chief of naval construction, told a house committee that the proposed fleet expansion would require $8 to 10 years.

DuBois, questioned by Representative Scott (D-Calif.), said he did not know whether a battleship would be the Mexican west coast harbor of Mazatlan. Scott said he had reports that Japan was negotiating to improve the Mexican port.

The Mexican ambassador, Francisco Castillo Nejaera, said after exchanging communications with his government that such reports were "completely lacking in basis."

Bombers Start Home.

Buenos Aires, Feb. 22 (AP)—Five United States army bombers, which flew from Miami, Fla., to the inauguration of President Ortiz of Argentina, took off for home at 7:07 a. m. E. S. T. today. The sixth of the bombers, the B-82, was unable to depart. The B-82, commanded by Captain Archibald V. Smith, was delayed by a fuel tank at El Palomar Military Airbase. Its crew, aided by Argentine mechanics, tried to free the plane but, without a jack heavy enough. An emergency call was sent for a railroad jack.

Mail Plane Burns.

Versailles, France, Feb. 22 (AP)—A German mail plane near the Colonne crashed in flames today, burning to death its crew of three.

Brown Will Die Thursday Night In Electric Chair

Charles James Brown, negro bandyman, will pay the penalty Thursday night for the death of Isadore Handelman, Ellenville junkman, who died as a result of an attack made by Brown last April when Brown entered the Handelman residence on Pine street, Ellenville, for purpose of robbery.

Sheriff Molyneux today received his notification from Warden Lawes to be present as a witness to the execution. Witnesses, required to be present under the law are at the prison an hour before the execution. District Attorney Cleon B. Murray will also be notified of the execution time and may attend as one of the witnesses. Sheriff Molyneux was notified to be present at 11 o'clock Thursday at the prison, indicating that the execution in the electric chair will take place at midnight.

Brown, a southern born negro, came to Ellenville where he worked at odd jobs. He worked as a truckman going to the mines for coal and also worked in a fish market in the village.

Murder in April

Last April Isadore Handelman and his wife were found dead in their partially burned bedroom. Both bodies were burned almost beyond recognition and at first it was presumed by firemen who had discovered the bodies after the fire had been extinguished, that the fire had been accidental. Handelman was known to have been a man who smoked considerable and it was at first believed he may have arisen early in the morning for a smoke and accidentally set fire to the room.

Later the position of the bodies in the Ellenville Police, State Troopers, and District Attorney Cleon B. Murray to suspect foul play. Sheriff Molyneux was notified and the officers made a very complete investigation. It was not however until a piece of blood covered pinion gear was found in a garden near the Handelman place that Brown was suspected. A neighbor's dog discovered the pinion gear and the owner of the dog in investigating the queer actions of the dog, located the pinion gear which was later found to have been taken from the house where Brown roomed.

Movements Traced

Investigation disclosed the movements of Brown and the fact that he had been in the vicinity of the Handelman house that night where another fire had been discovered. After visiting the fire, Brown returned to his room and later left for the city, where he left the truck at Port Jervis, after displaying a sum of money which he said was to redeem his girl's fur coat.

He failed to meet the truck in Port Jervis as he had agreed to and later was identified as the man who held up a lunch room in Port Jervis. He then disappeared. A blood stained coat was found in an abandoned house and identified as Brown's coat.

Later it was learned from a colored girl in Ellenville that Brown had had trouble with his girl on the night of the murder and had threatened her with a hatchet and had assaulted her. With no money of his own at that time and his display of a roll on his way to Port Jervis it was concluded Brown knew about the Handelman murder and a four state alert was sent out.

He gave himself up later at the Orange County Home after he had spent several days in the Utica county by Sheriff Molyneux. A statement was made by Brown at Ellenville to District Attorney Murray and several witnesses. Brown admitted that he had gone to the Handelman home for the purpose of robbery but had struck Handelman when he attempted to defend himself. Mrs. Handelman was also struck when she came to the rescue of her husband.

Eden Leaves for Commons

This photograph from London shows the crowd that assembled at Anthony Eden's home greeting him as he left to explain before the House of Commons why he resigned his post as foreign secretary in the cabinet of Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain. Eden told the Commons he had quit the government rather than make a deal with Italy in the face of Duce's "rite and hostile propaganda" against Great Britain.

This Country Is Listed as Pagan Declares Snyder

World Traveler Gave Interesting Address at First Annual Banquet of Teachers and Officers of Albany Avenue Baptist Sunday School.

Fourteen out of every 25 people in Kingston have no church affiliation of any kind, declared Frederick Snyder, world traveler and lecturer of this city, addressing the first annual banquet of the teachers and officers of the Albany Avenue Baptist Sunday School on Monday evening in the church hall. Mr. Snyder was discussing world conditions in relation to religion.

The first annual banquet proved a most successful social event and the committee who had arranged for the banquet was given a rousing vote of thanks.

The banquet tables had been arranged attractively in the church hall and a fine menu was served promptly at 6:30 o'clock.

Evan J. Davis, the newly elected superintendent of the Sunday school, presided as toastmaster and introduced the speaker of the evening. During the evening an exceptionally fine program, consisting of a piano duet by Mrs. Lester E. Decker and Mrs. Lloyd R. LeFever; a vocal solo by Harold S. Brigham, piano and accordion selections by Roger Baer, and piano selections by Miss Betty Heaps, made up a well rounded program.

27th Anniversary.

The evening festivities were opened with the singing of America and was followed by the invocation by the Rev. Arthur S. Cole, pastor of the church. This year the Rev. Mr. Cole is celebrating his 27th anniversary as pastor of the church. He became pastor in 1911.

The newly elected officers in whose honor the banquet was held are:

The Rev. Arthur S. Cole, pastor, director of religious education.

Superintendent—Evan J. Davis. Associate superintendents—Bernard W. Healey, Miss A. Mae Decker.

Secretary—Miss Ruth Koonz. Treasurer—George B. Matthews.

Pianist—Frank B. Matthews. Assistant pianist—Miss Mabel Terwilliger.

A Pagan Nation

The principal address of the evening was that of Mr. Snyder who vividly and impressively traced world affairs. He said that in the League of Nations building in Geneva this country was listed as a pagan nation. This was due to the fact, he said, that the majority of the people of the United States were not affiliated with any of the 281 forms of religious worship in this country. That was why, he said, that Japan was sending over more missionaries to this country than this country was sending over there. Japan was also spending two dol-

Auburn-Haired Girl, Backed by Rosendale, Enters Bud Contest

Miss Eleanor Adickes of Tillson Backed by Rosendale Township Association

Step up, folks, and meet the red-haired beauty from Tillson Plains: Yes, this reporter is referring to no less a lassie than Miss Eleanor Adickes who comes from Rosendale way and is another entrant sponsored by the Rosendale Township Association for the crown of Queen of Ulster county's first Apple Blossom Festival.

Our heroine is a student at Spencer's Business School, so we barged into Del Kelly's office in search of her—no, nothing personal, the City Ed wanted a story about this latest queen from Ed Hohen's neck of the woods.

"Just sit down there and cool off a bit," says Del Kelly, "because you're going to see something in a minute that'll knock your eyes out."

We twiddle our thumbs for a moment and then in walks one of the prettiest girls in Rosendale Township.

A choke and a gasp, and then we manage to stammer a "pleased to meet you," or something like that. And then the interview begins: (A reporter's life sometimes is a bed of roses, or what have you.)

Eleanor, (we'll call her that to save a few big loose impersonals), is 18 years old. She was not sure but she "thought" she might be five feet three inches tall, and "guess I weigh about 129 pounds."

When queried about the color of her hair, she called herself a red-head but Del Kelly suggested that it would sound better in a write-up if we said she had "auburn hair," so, folks, she has auburn hair and take it from us, it's really very beautiful. Eyes? We think she was kidding but she said they were green—they looked blue to us but then we didn't get too close.

"How did you come to enter this contest," says we, and she remarked that the new president of the Rosendale Township Association, Joseph O'Connor, told her to get in it. It kinda runs in this reporter's mind that Joe was in the same class in high school with him—so we're not too bad at pickin' the queens!

A Mermaid

Miss Eleanor is another mermaid, having a strong yen for swimming. She also likes to roller skate but "the not very good at it." Then Del Kelly breaks into the interview with "She's kidding you—she really is a good skater." Well, we think she is a good skater—but don't know much about the rest of it. Since she comes from the Ski center, we inquired about her ability on those contraptions—she doesn't ski but gets a thrill watching the big he-men soaring through the air from their ski-jump hill.

What does she eat? "Everything. I don't worry about my diet. Why should I? Our guess is that a diet would not be necessary—she's O. K. as is."

As for the movies, or should we say cinema, she goes occasionally and enjoys Sonia Henie very much. Her favorite actor—"Well, I don't know." We suggested the gallant Robert Taylor, but she turned thumbs down on him and even pool-pool no less a he-man than Clark Gable.

What manner of woman is this, we wonder? When asked if she would go to Hollywood if given the opportunity, she answered in the affirmative but she said she wasn't worrying much about the possibility as she did not think this would happen.

Her family? Oh, yes, she lives with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Adickes, at Tillson, and she has a brother (Continued on Page Eight)

Last Barrier Cleared

Los Angeles, Feb. 22 (AP)—Paul A. Wright, slayer of his wife and friend, John Kinnell, remained in the county psychiatric ward today, but the last barrier to his ultimate freedom had been cleared.

Superior Judge Ben H. Lindsey held yesterday that Wright is sane, therefore entitled to return to life among his fellow men.

However, he said he could not liberate him, for five days, to give the district attorney's office an opportunity to move for a jury trial on his present mental condition.

Carol Meets Cabinet

Bucharest, Feb. 22 (AP)—King Carol, who promulgated a new constitution Sunday placing great powers in his hands, received several cabinet members today to inform himself about details of the economic and agricultural life of the country. Foreign reports that he had been attacked or assassinated were described as fantastic inventions by persons close to the monarch. Assurances were given that he was in the best of health.

Chamberlain Calls League "A Delusion" in Reply to Angry Opposition Today

Washington Liked To Enjoy His Life History Reveals

New York, Feb. 22 (AP)—Did George Washington ever go to a clam bake? How did he feel about the liquor question? Did he have any children?

Your correspondent button-holed an average guy named Joe Somebody on Fifth Avenue today to see how much he knew about the man whose birthday he was celebrating.

"Why," said Joe, "Washington was the father of his country. He never chopped down a cherry tree—ahem—or did he? Anyway, he was general in the Revolutionary War and—ahem—"

"And the father of his country," he concluded triumphantly. "He didn't know about the clam bake, liquor or children matters."

He also didn't know: Was Washington born in the United States or England? Was his father a grocer or a college professor?

Was he an only child? Was he tall or short? Was he ever a millionaire? Was he in favor of gambling? Had his wife ever been married before?

Did he ever have any sweethearts but her? What was his last words? What were his last words?

Here Are the Answers.

In case you run into Joe, here are the answers.

Washington was born in Virginia—205 years ago. His father operated iron mines and had a lot of farm land. Washington had five brothers and sisters.

He was tall—over six feet two. He was a millionaire all right—his estate at his death is estimated to have been worth $5,000,000 in current money.

He did go to clam bakes, drank along with everybody else, and gambled on cards and billiards (that's in his account books). He had no children.

His wife—Yes, Martha—whom he married when they were both 27, was the widow of Daniel Custis. Washington had other sweethearts. He is traditionally believed to have wooed Mary Phillips of New York and to have had quite an affection for Sarah Fairfax, a Virginia neighbor's wife.

His death was caused by acute laryngitis and the ague, and his last words were funeral instructions to his secretary, Tobias Lear.

And if Joe tells you Washington was the first president, he's just barely safe at first. The several presidents of the Continental Congress listed themselves as "President of the United States" and it wasn't until 1932 that the State Department decided officially that under the constitution Washington was the first president.

FIVE BOMBERS MAKE TRIP, 6TH GROUNDED

Santiago, Chile, Feb. 22 (AP)—Five big United States Army bombing planes, homeward bound from a goodwill flight to Buenos Aires, arrived at 11:58 a. m. (E. S. T.) today at Los Cerrillos Airplane here.

They made the transcontinental crossing from Buenos Aires, over the top Andes chain, in four hours 51 minutes.

They had soared over the Andes at an altitude of 18,000 feet and had crossed the Argentine-Chilean border at 11 a. m. They flew over the famous Statue of the Christ of the Andes as they had done on the flight to Buenos Aires.

The planes were to remain here overnight.

The sixth plane of the group which flew from the United States for the inauguration of Roberto M. Ortiz, Argentina's new president, was held at Buenos Aires, unable to take off because a wheel had sunk through a concrete covering of a gasoline storage tank.

Wicks Asks Bill to Use Gas Tax Solely For State's Roads

Albany, Feb. 22 (Special)—Senator Arthur H. Wicks, Republican of Kingston, introduced in the Senate Monday night an amendment to the Constitution, which would provide that all revenue received from any motor fuel tax of three cents or less a gallon, and all motor vehicle license fees, shall be used solely for highway and bridge construction and maintenance, and for acquiring of rights-of-way for state highways.

The bill, which would prevent any diversion of gasoline tax and motor vehicle fees for purposes other than highway use, has been sent to the Senate Judiciary Committee for further consideration.

A companion measure is being sponsored in the assembly by Assemblyman William A. Chandler, Republican of Orange county.

Another Wicks bill amends the general municipal law by prohibiting companies issuing liability insurance to municipalities from placing certain restrictions on policies relative to volunteer firemen.

Senator Wicks has also introduced a measure which is an amendment to the public health law, providing for payment of cost of care and maintenance of patients in state tuberculosis hospitals by the county in which the patient has a settlement, and for payment by the state where settlement status is in doubt, until determination of the settlement is made. This measure, memorized in the Assembly by Assemblyman Chandler, has been sent to health committee for action.

Paris Minister Killed

Brady, England, Feb. 22 (AP)—Hugh Lloyd Thomas, 49, British minister to Paris, was killed today when his horse fell in a steep-lehase race. Thomas had been secretary for seven years to the Duke of Windsor when he was minister in Great Britain's Paris embassy, second only to the ambassador, Sir Eric Phipps. Thomas' neck was broken.

Dr. Hale Dies.

British Prime Minister Says Nation Must Not Delude Small Weak Nations as to League Protection.

FRANCE BUILDS

French Cabinet Approves New Armaments Plan to Spend $329,000,000.

London, Feb. 22 (AP)—Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain today shouted to an angry opposition in the House of Commons that the League of Nations as protection against aggression was "a delusion" and demanded that Geneva throw out its "shams and pretences."

Chamberlain, striving to make his voice heard above the cries of the Labor Party members, who had demanded a vote of censure for his policy of making friends with Europe's dictators, cried:

"We must not try to delude ourselves, and still more we must not try to delude small, weak nations that they will be protected by the League against aggression."

"We know that nothing of the kind can be expected."

Labor Begins Assault

London, Feb. 22 (AP)—Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's policy of making friends with Europe's dictators today became the target for a full force assault of the opposition Labor party, which demanded in the House of Commons a vote of censure against the government.

Arthur Greenwood, vice-chairman of the labor party, moving the vote of censure declared that with Anthony Eden out of office as Foreign Secretary "the fate of the world rests in the trembling hands of the Prime Minister."

The motion deplored the circumstances of Eden's dramatic resignation Sunday night and proposed to put the house on record as having no confidence in the government's conduct of foreign policy.

As the test of strength between the coldly practical Chamberlain and his former foreign secretary began in the house, Chamberlain's supporters were confident of enough strength to defeat overwhelmingly the labor motion.

Before the debate started Eden went to Buckingham Palace and turned his seals of office over to King George.

No Collective Security

"The League is unable to provide collective security for anybody," said Chamberlain. "The League because I have faith that it will be reconstituted."

"But I doubt very much if the League will ever do its best work so long as its members are nominally bound to impose sanctions (economic penalties) or impose force in support of its principles."

"Nations that remain in the League must not be saddled with risks they are not prepared to take."

"If the League would throw off the shams and pretences which everyone sees through and come out with a declaration of what it is prepared to do, its moral force as a focus for public opinion would be multiplied at once."

Europe Anxious

(By The Associated Press)

With war already rumbling in one corner, Europe watches anxiously today for the effect of British diplomacy's turn from "idealism" to hard "practicality."

France, facing Spanish civil war on her southern border and Germany's spreading influence in central Europe close to her eastern frontiers, looked to the strength of her defenses.

The French cabinet approved a plan for a new armaments fund reported to total 19,000,000,000 francs ($329,000,000). It sought quick parliamentary approval so that the money could become available within a week and the program begin at once.

The navy, it was understood, hoped for funds sufficient to lay down two 35,000-ton battleships and the air force planned to order 1,000 new fighting planes.

Four-Week Ban.

In Vienna, hundreds of police enforced a four-week ban on political demonstrations throughout Austria. Illustrative of the panic that has gripped the nation since it learned the significance of the Berchtesgaden pact of February 12 that admitted Nazi influence to its government, was the suicide of six Jews and the admission of four others to hospitals suffering from nervous collapse.

In Budapest, 73 Hungarian Nazis were arrested in a police raid on their headquarters.

In Spain, the insurgents reoccupied Teruel, driving government forces from the Aragon province stronghold they had taken Dec. 21.

Would Raise Car Speed

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 22 (AP)—The speed limit for passenger automobiles would be increased from 40 to 50 miles an hour on state highways under a bill before New York's legislature today.

The measure was one of a series of amendments to the motor vehicle law proposed by Assemblyman Herbert A. Rapp, Genesee Republican.

He also recommended legislation which would: Revoke operator and registration license of a motorist convicted of criminal negligence resulting in death. Permit motor vehicles to make right turns on a red light into a highway which meets but does not cross the highway on which the light is placed.

Provide that motorists must give right of way to pedestrians crossing roadway on a green traffic signal. Authorize state traffic commission to restrict parking of vehicles on all state highways and to regulate all traffic control lights and traffic signs on highways maintained by state.

A resolution introduced by Assemblyman Macneil Mitchell, New York Republican, called for "revision and strengthening" of the election laws by a joint legislative commission.

Arkansas Fights Flood

Pine Bluff, Ark., Feb. 22 (AP)—Nearly 2,000 workers fought today to save levees around this city from the pounding of the flood-swollen Arkansas river.

Renewed rainfall added to the problem confronting WPA workers rushed to the endangered area.

The principal danger point was at a bend in the river north of the city, where a crevasse in the levee threatened inundation of railroad shops.

The Arkansas was falling west of Little Rock but the crest of 32 feet was not expected here until tomorrow. What effect the continuing rains would have was a matter of conjecture, but weather bureau officials at Little Rock said, "It will take a lot more rain than this" to have any effect on the falling streams.

The American Red Cross was feeding about 1,500 families. Albert Evans, disaster relief director, said the total probably would increase to 2,000 or 2,500.

About 150 refugees still were to be brought out of bottom lands near Newport in North Arkansas, where two levee breaks inundated more than 25,000 acres.

HOLLYWOOD Sights and Sounds

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—J'accuse. In a bewildered, plaintive bleat, I accuse the movie dress designers of unfair, unethical, corrupt practices. They permitted their representative to strike behind my back. That wily gentleman, telephoning, would have no words with me. Ah, no, he must speak to the head of the house.

"Mrs. C." said the blackguard, "the leading studio designers are having a style show. . . . You will come—and bring Mr. C?"

So Mr. C. sat, squirming in prehistoric tux, trying to make his Adam's apple choose between upper and lower berth on a tight wing collar. Mr. C. sat, while the models marched and the music (happily, Paul Whiteman's) played and the honey-toned commentators "described" and the Coconut Grove echoed with polite applause and the ebb of "Oh!" and the flow of "Ah!"

And then, just at it all, Mr. C. suddenly realized that he had something there. A vital problem: Do clothes make the star or vice versa?

A Matter Of Importance Here were the stars' clothes, spectacular, theatrical, and mostly too-too, parading around without the stars in them. And yet, the garments—beg pardon, creations—were beautifully filled by lovely youth. Inevitable conclusion: Clothes have a goddamned lot to do with it, even when you don't notice them on the screen.

To an old abandoned previewer these masterpieces of Adrian, Royer, Orry—Kelly, Vera West, Milo Anderson, Gwen Wakening—did I skip anyone?—should have been old stuff. All the gowns came from recent pictures yet all were news to me. Inevitable conclusion: A star's a star for a' that.

Now where was I? Oh, yes, at a style show. All the stars aren't here, in fact not one in a Grove-ful. . . . They have sent stock players, stand-ins, professional models. . . . That Edith Abel, modeling the Kay Francis stuff, knows how.

The Brewster twins, wearing Alice Faye's, so delectable and demure. . . . Janet Shaw, so pretty!

A sample description: "Presenting—g-g-g-g—glorious flamingo dinner ensemble in black crepe roma and monkey fur. Note fringe and simply DIAL-BOLIC use of sequins at hipline. It would not be complete without the WICKEDLY long black gloves."

What's WICKED about long gloves? Tell me that. . . . Comes my big moment, the climax, "pequin!" . . . Whimsical chap, he's given them names, to wit: "Feeling Like a Million" and "Second Wife" and "I Love Emeralds."

Saugerties, Feb. 22.—According to the local blue stone business men, J. J. Corkery and John Maxwell of the Maxwell Bluestone Co., which is located on the Saugerties creek dock the outlook for business is beginning to show signs of improvement. Prices for the sale of stone will be 10 to 20 per cent higher and wages for quarry workers will raise and efforts to bring the quarries toward greater production is now under way. At present the Maxwell Company has received orders to furnish 85,000 feet of curb and the company is now in the field to purchase more bluestone as the market swings upward. Shipments will be made from their yards by trucks at present and as soon as the river is open for navigation shipments will be made via their fleet of barges. The local quarries have the finest grade of stone and quarries are looking forward to a bright season.

OFFICE CAT

By Junius

We Honor Our First President

February 22—George Washington's birthday.

First in strength; first in foresight; first in the minds of all wise men.... George Washington emboldens the heights of achievements in political leadership.... economic wizardry and decisive sagacity.

His birth two hundred and six years ago was an unmarked event in a land still in a state of embryonic progress. Yet today, in looking backward, we may truly marvel at how closely associated with our present international leadership are the developments made by these United States, as a direct result of the mental strategy and powers of visualization of the man so aptly called "The Father of His Country."

The Grave of Washington

Disturb not his slumbers; let Washington sleep.

Neath the boughs of the willow that over him weep, his deeds remain bright.

As the stars in the dark-vaunted heavens at night, Awake not the hero, his battles are o'er;

Let him rest undisturbed on Potomac's fair shore, On the river's green border, so flowery drest,

With the hearts he loved so fondly, let Washington rest.

Awake not his slumbers, tread lightly around.

'Tis the grave of a freeman, his liberty's mound.

Thy name is immortal, our freedom ye won.

Brave sire of Columbia, our own Washington.

O, wake not the hero, his battles are o'er;

Let him rest, calmly rest, on his dear native shore,

While the Stars and Stripes of our country shall wave,

O'er the land that can boast of a Washington's grave.

Washington is the name of 28 municipalities, 32 counties, one state and one Federal District.

George Washington was also a good advertising man. When he decided to subdivide and sell a tract of 20,000 acres of land he owned along the Ohio and Kanawha Rivers he ran an ad in the Maryland Journal and Baltimore Advertiser of August 20, 1773. The ad was a long and comprehensive statement, signed by himself, and reading in part as follows:

"None can exceed these lands in luxuries of soil or convenience of situation, abounding in fish and wild fowl, as also is most excellent meadows, many of which (by the bountiful hand of nature) are in their present state almost fit for the scythe. From every part of these lands water carriage

FLASHES OF LIFE SKETCHED IN BRIEF

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Quick Thinker

San Francisco—Without a moment's hesitation Mayor Angelo Rossi made a decision that saved the city $1.

A sales letter told the mayor he should have a $1 publication on "municipal snow removal."

His answer was "No." He said he couldn't remember the city's last snow crisis.

Dog Daze

Bluefield, W. Va.—"Pigs is pigs," is pups to his dog "Sheep".

The dog was despondent because his recent litter had been given away.

Then Farmer Riley's dog died and left four offspring. Sheep immediately took over the task of nursing the pigs. They're thriving.

Wrong Number

Denver—Three times the phone interrupted John Luzzi's sleep with calls for persons Luzzi didn't know.

Came the dawn, and Luzzi opened his restaurant to find it looted of $35 and $50 worth of liquor and tobacco. He surmised the burglars phoned to make sure he was at home.

"Better Late," etc.

Augusta, Ky.—Augusta and Mr. Olivet high schools will close their 1937—'38—that's right—basketball season Saturday.

The game was to have been played last year, but was washed out by the flood.

Women's Clubs Hold Regular Meetings

Olympian Club, Lowell Literary Club, and others held their regular meetings Monday at the homes of the members. Lowell Club met at the home of Mrs. Frederick, and the Olympian Club in continuation of its study of drama. Papers on the subject were read by Mrs. A. H. Van Buren and Mrs. James J. Murphy, Jr. Mrs. Murphy's paper gave an historical review of the drama from the beginning of the 18th century to 1830. The Show Boat era and of Barnum as a showman were described by Mrs. Murphy. Several members also sang selections from Stephen Foster.

Is Your Speech Middle, Top, or Low?

Let's begin with the top—with Dorothy. She's transformed her speech so that it rates Grade A with Grade A people—and what a grand time she's having. Not so long ago she was a middle-grader like so many of us. True, she knew better than to say, "I SEEN it" for "I SAW it"—"AIN'T" for "ISN'T". She looked down on Cheap Sadies who say, "I don't know NOTHING" for "I don't know ANYTHING". But what Dorothy didn't realize was that she made errors which sounded as cheap to well-educated ears as the Sadie errors sounded to hers. And what a shock it was when her employer, in an irritable moment, showed her that her speech fairly bristled with faults. "Don't say, 'It seems LIKE' THINGS more complaints this week," he snapped. "Say, 'It seems AS IF there ARE more'." Less conspicuous errors, these, than the "ain'ts" of the Cheap solos, accompanied by Mrs. Mul-ton, Dance Minuet and Acrobatic Ballet, by Marion Davies and Audrey Shultis, accompanied by Paul Yocan. Two piano solos by Beverly Bonsteel. Many gifts were presented to the worthy matron and worthy patron by officers and friends. There was a very large attendance, visitors from several chapters of the district being present. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the meeting and all enjoyed a very social evening. "In under one Roosevelt and out under another." That's how George L. ## 'A Delusion' Says Chamberlain

Both sides have fought bitterly for the day, a base for an insurgent army eastward in an effort to split the Mediterranean coast.

In China, vanguards of Japanese armies made exploratory attacks to test Chinese defenses along a 120-mile front on the Yellow river. Chinese so far have repelled Japanese efforts to cross the stream and strike at the Langhai railroad, China's main line.

In Commons Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer, said there were any negotiations in progress for a British loan or credits to Italy.

Chamberlain's desire for a speedy termination of Anglo-Italian hostility, which he said yesterday might reach a point at which "war between us might become inevitable" was the issue in which the prime minister and den broke.

Declines To Inform

Chamberlain declined today to make a statement on the government's policy on the Austrian crisis. He refused to answer a sarcastic question by Geoffrey L. Underhill, Liberal, whether Reichsmarschall Hitler had suggested that Chamberlain's policy would lead to war.

Greenwood declared that Chamberlain's policy would lead to war. He declared the prime minister "speaked around the pirates" and to try to drive a bargain. He demanded to know if France had been consulted before Chamberlain made his new approach to Italy.

In Rome the British Ambassador

the Earl of Perth, conferred with the Foreign Minister Count Alessandro Ciano preparatory to returning to London for instructions for the Anglo-Italian negotiations shortly to open in Rome under the eye of Premier Benito Mussolini.

U. S. Refuses Treaty

He declared that non-recognition of the Italian conquest was a cardinal principle of United States foreign policy and recalled that President Roosevelt and Secretary of State Hull had refused to conclude a treaty with Italy rather than admit that Ethiopia was Italian territory.

Chamberlain directly singled out the statement of Viscount Cranborne that the split between Eden and the cabinet was over a "principle of good faith in international affairs."

The prime minister flatly repudiated the labor suggestion that he had "done anything behind the backs of our friends." He said the French had been consulted fully on the Italian consultations and appeared to be in "complete agreement on the subjects to be discussed."

He was cheered when he declared that if Britain wanted talks with Italy, "the sooner we have them the better."

Italy's Meeting

Washington, Feb. 22 (AP)—Delegates to the convention of the National Lawyers Guild met today to rally the selection of Ferdinand Pecora, New York State Supreme Court Justice, to be their president for the coming year. He will succeed John P. Donovan, former Chief Justice of Minnesota.

Arabs First Recognized

Strength of Gibraltar

Even in the days when military science was in its infancy the Rock of Gibraltar, rising sheer from the Mediterranean to a height of 1,400 feet, appealed to the imagination of the ancients, who called it, together with its companion, Gebel Musa, on the African coast, the Pillars of Hercules. In all other respects they left the solitary giant alone to his meditations, observes a writer in the Los Angeles Times.

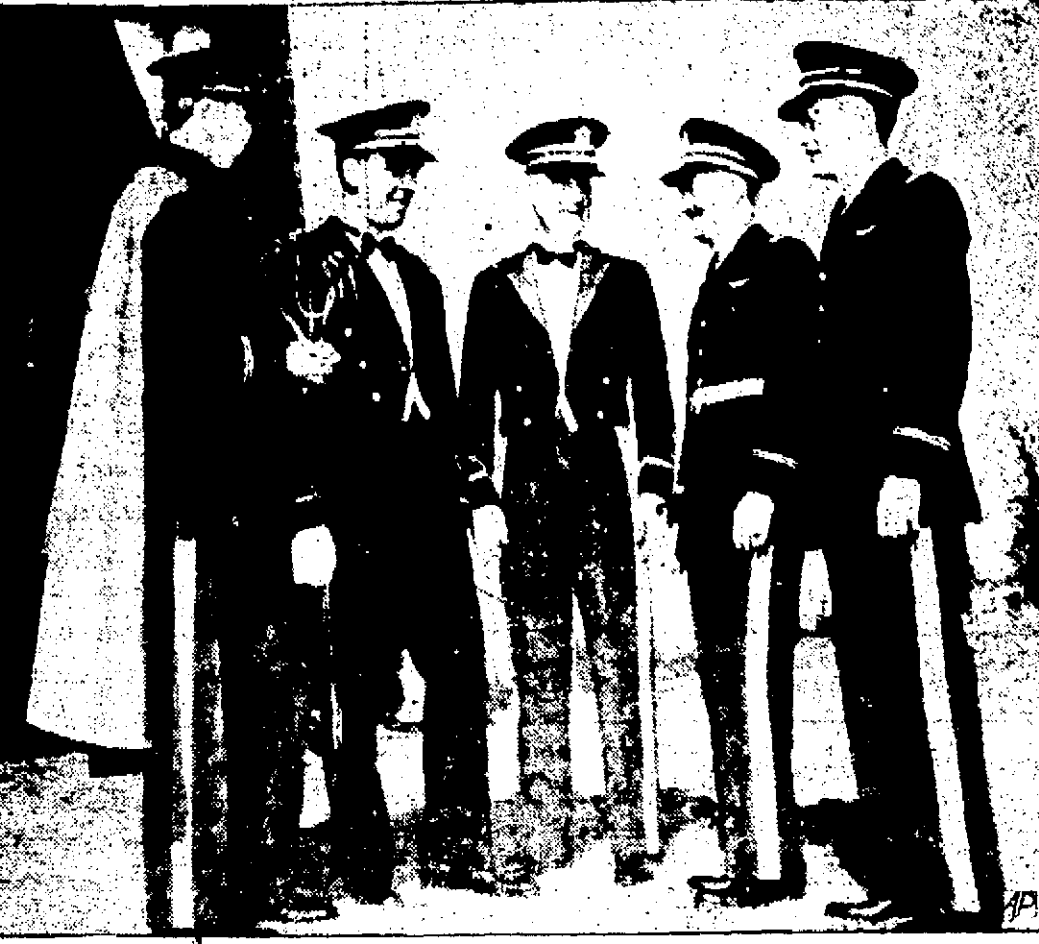

The Arabs were the first to recognize the rock's strategic value. As Moors they crossed the strait in 711, christening it Gebel-el-Tarik, or the mountain of Tarik, their leader's name. They constructed a castle, which is standing, and eventually conquered the whole peninsula.

Nine hundred years later the last Moor was expelled from Spain, and he left it where the original one had landed, in the Bay of Gibraltar.

On the decline of the Spanish empire, the rock passed into British hands.

Napoleon tried to take it when he was building his empire but failed. Thus was created the phrase "as strong as the Rock of Gibraltar."

Red Cross Asks Relief for China

The Ulster County Chapter, American Red Cross, has received another very strong appeal from National Headquarters, for contributions to assist in alleviating the frightful distress that thousands of children are undergoing in China.

American Ambassador Nelson T. Johnson, honorary president of the committee, cabled as follows: "I received a visit today from five Chinese children aged from six to 12 years, representing 1,500 similar children in Hankow refugee camps, whose parents had been either killed in the hostilities or the families had become separated, and the children left without support or protection, other than that afforded by charitable organizations, and those unselfish persons who are now caring for tens of thousands of refugees in this area alone, an area which has not as yet been visited by warfare other than bombing from the air. These little children told me of the hardships they had suffered in their wanderings in Hankow from distant places, and expressed their gratitude for the sympathy expressed by Americans for Chinese, reduced to suffering by the current hostilities. There can be no doubt of the value of the efforts which are being made to rescue such children from starvation among ruined homes, and to give them a new start in life. Even with the extremely low maintenance cost of about five cents per person daily, for food, it is extremely difficult for these organizations to acquire necessary funds. Immense humanitarian work can be accomplished through donations to the Chinese Refugee Rescue Work in China."

Contributions will be received at the office of the Ulster County Chapter of the Red Cross, 260 Park street, any morning between 9:30 and 12:30, or checks may be mailed to this address, made to the American Red Cross.

DEWEY FAVORS STATE BLUE RIBBON 'JURIES'

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 22 (AP)—Abolition of so-called "blue ribbon" juries, proposed in a series of bills before the Legislature, was opposed today by Manhattan District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey on the ground "it would seriously impede the administration of criminal justice."

Dewey, as special prosecutor prior to becoming district attorney last January 1, used the special juries in prosecuting racketeers.

At the same time, James J. Wilson, New York city lawyer, opposed the juries, saying they resulted in "trial by class."

Colonials vs. Celtics Tonight; DiCastro Wins Over Viscio

Shift in Schedule Is Test for the Colonials Before Reds' Game

BASS UNWORRIED

Club Can Stand the Pace and Make Reds Hustle Says New Manager: Has Two Exhibitions on Slate.

John J. O'Brien's appointment as manager is a test for the Colonials in the pressure he's putting on the team.

With none other than the Jersey Reds, first half champs, scheduled to come to the municipal auditorium, Wednesday night, O'Brien, obliged to shift around the American League schedule, looked the Colonials with the Colonials at Prospect Hall, Brooklyn, tonight.

Frank Morgenweck, just relieved by Bass, would have gone on a rage about such a shift and the "impositions" of John O'Brien. But, Bass accepted the assignment for his Kingston club without a murmur, looking on the move of the American League proxy as just one of those things that exacts everything from a professional basketball team.

Asked by Matt Herzog and Jack Foye, Kingston business men who have assumed financial responsibility for the Colonials, whether he intended to complain about running Kingston into Brooklyn being the team's hard drive with the Jersey Reds at the auditorium tomorrow, Bass said no.

Dave added that his confidence in the Colonials is strong enough to rate the club able to battle the Colonials without losing the drive and power the quiet needs for the Gas House Gang with which he played a sizzling encounter last Sunday, losing by only one point.

I believe in keeping the club together," said Manager Bass, announcing that he had booked two more games for this week, one at the league title, making four dates for the Colonials. Friday night Kingston will play at Union, Mass., and Saturday at Buffalo.

Bass' starting lineup tonight against the Celtics will be Corky Stanton and Moe Duffield, forwards; Tiny Hearn, center; Phil Hearn and Max Pusnak, guards; Husta, Kaplinsky and Van Hook will be on the bench.

Jack McNick, of the Celtics, thought by Bass, is expected to be in Kingston for the Reds' game Wednesday.

The way Bass handled the Colonials at Union City satisfied Morgenweck and Foye, who agreed to give Dave a free hand when he took over the managerial reins on recommendation of President O'Brien, who boosted his stocks as a "capable young fellow, familiar with all the angles of the game on the court and program dates for the club."

Endeavoring to make good for Herzog and Foye, the two Kingstonians who accepted him as boss of the Colonials on O'Brien's say, Bass will try to pull the Kingston team out of second last position in its present situation in the league standing according to the schedule.

Explanation of Bowling Rules Pertaining to City Tournament

In order to clear up a misunderstanding on the part of several bowlers, the Kingston A. B. C. Association today issued an explanation on the rules governing five-man entries for the city tournament which starts March 15 at the Immanuel alleys.

A bowler is eligible to compete with as many five-man teams as he was a qualified member of during the regular season. This makes every bowling club in the city eligible to compete in a unit.

Thus, if John Jones bowls with four teams, he can roll with each team, but his first three scores count toward his all-events total.

Entries for the second annual tournament close on March 1. While the number of teams that have filed entries has not come up to expectations, it is believed that the final week will see the entry total go over last year's mark.

Members of the A. B. C. committee will make a concerted effort to get the various teams in line this week. The championships are being conducted in three classes this year. Last season there were A and B divisions, and a C classification has been added for the forthcoming tournament.

Entries should be sent to Jose Alvarez, Manor Lake, N.Y. City.

Newburgh Boxer Wins in Gloves

New York, Feb. 22 (AP)—With 30 or so bouts already out of the way, the young battlers in the Golden Gloves tournament of champions settle down to real mayhem today with over a hundred fights scheduled in the 12th annual tournament sponsored by the New York Daily News Welfare Association.

The boxing started last night with the contestants from 19 cities involved. Team honors went to the representatives of the Trenton, N. J. Times who took three of their four bouts in impressive fashion.

Corky Duglerian of the Newburgh (N. Y.) News team was another convincing victor, putting James Pappalardo of the Hudson, (N. J.) Dispatch away in the first round of their 125 pound open bout.

Bass' starting lineup tonight against the Celtics will be Corky Stanton and Moe Duffield, forwards; Tiny Hearn, center; Phil Hearn and Max Pusnak, guards; Husta, Kaplinsky and Van Hook will be on the bench.

Greb Best Middleweight, Says Walker—Shimek Concerned About Back
By Joe Kelly

National League batsmen beware! King Carl Hubbell says: "There's a difference in the cover and seams of this year. This will let me get a better grip, give more wind resistance and I guess my screw ball should be a little more effective. I'm overdue for a bad season, but when it comes I'll keep on pitching and doing my best."

Mickey Walker, the old middleweight champ, now a tavern keeper in New York, rates Harry Greb as the best in the division. He says: "I've never seen Fred A. postolli or Glen Lee, but I have seen Freddie Steele the champion, and while I agree he is a clever lad, it would be no dice if he got into the ring with a fellow like Harry Greb was in his day. None of the middleweights around today could lay a glove on Greb as I knew him."

Charley Bock, Kingston High School, last night, leading scorer of the DUSO League, has not received any scholarship offers. That's what he told Frank Shimek, ex-lightweight of the Colonials, who is a golf pro at Wirtwyck links. Frank intends to do something about it. He agrees with Phil Rubin, high scorer in the American League, that Bock is a sensation. "Irv Van Kleek is angling for a series of boxing matches in Hudson. He popularized himself there by putting up a stiff battle with Mario Severino. Pete Caprotti has a severe cold that will keep him out of the gym for at least a week. Jess, his brother, is nursing that cut he suffered in his bout with Charley Raizins. Wonder who started those petitions for Charlie Husta? He is not concerned about them right now. Although he'd probably be proud to make the Golds, his main concern is to keep on playing and collect on his contract. He wishes Dave Bass odds of luck and hopes he'll have a crowd at Wednesday's game with the Jersey Reds. Thanks a lot, we say to Wes Cramer, motorcycle patrolman, who expressed his compliments on our column. Too bad we weren't scribbling a few years back when Wes was bowlin' 'em over as the Blonde Tiger. But wait! The baseball season is coming and he'll be out there with Lieut. James V. Simpson's team against Newburgh. Freddie Stoudt should be right in shape at the beginning of the season now that he's back on patrol with a chance to swing a nightstick. Better get the shad now, read too, Freddie. And, how about that white elephant?"

WIEMAN NEW PRINCETON GRID COACH

Elton E. "Tad" Wieman, line coach at Princeton University for six years, was appointed head coach to succeed Herbert O. "Fritz" Crisler, who was appointed head coach and assistant director of athletics at the University of Michigan recently. Wieman (left) is shown being congratulated by Burnham Dell, chairman of the university council on athletics, on his appointment.

Princeton, N. J., Feb. 22 (AP)—Nassau Hall and its snow-dusted environs buzzed pleasantly today as the news spread that Big Elton (Tad) Wieman had been chosen to succeed Fritz Crisler as head football coach of the Tiger.

Wieman's nomination had been almost a foregone conclusion ever since Crisler was lured to Michigan, but the genial giant was given the nod officially by the Council of Athletics only last night. The student body was happy about it, for Wieman apparently has made nothing but friends in the six seasons he has been building lines here for Crisler.

Lake Placid, N. Y., Feb. 22 (AP)—Birger and Sigmund Rudd, Norway's star skiing brother act, led a crack field into the Lake Placid Club's annual invitation jumping competition here today.

Birger, world's jumping title holder, was the early favorite to capture the event, second of a two day competition. Nils Eie of the Norwegian Ski Club of New York city won the combination Downhill and Slalom event yesterday.

The skiers shared the sports program's highlights yesterday with the second day's competition for the Adirondack outdoor skating championships.

Dick Werner of Haledon, N. J., won the men's senior crown while Miss Janet Milne, youthful Saranac Lake star who holds the North American title, took the women's senior honors.

ST. LOUIS SLUGGERS
The famous "Slingin' Sam" Daugh of football fame has been signed to a St. Louis Cardinal baseball contract.

The information was wired to the Redbird office today by General Manager Branch Rickey, who stated Daugh will report March 2 to the St. Petersburg, Fla., spring training camp. Daugh is an infielder, playing either third base or short stop.

Terms of the agreement were not divulged.

Louis Underrated for Wednesday Bout with Mann at Madison Square

New York, Feb. 22 (AP)—Shuffle! Joe Louis will lay his heavyweight title on the line tomorrow night, an act viewed in certain quarters as extremely foolhardy.

The one-time wonderman of his division faces Nathan Mann, a willing citizen of New Haven, Conn., and many a ring scribe has delivered the opinion that the "old man" has a lot more than the "young man" in the tank.

Chronic short cutters are leaning on the Mann bandwagon, too. The heavy support given Mann by these gentry and others is an echo, of course, of the Schmeling's debacle and the Farrinco. The public's confidence in Louis is shaken.

There has been nothing to show that the bomber is off form, in training, he has been hitting his hardest, which is mighty severe. His legs are good and his wind excellent. He is assaulting sparling partners with the old Louis steam and he apparently has no mental worries.

The fight is the first heavyweight championship bout indoors in 18 years, and there should be a capacity house at the Garden. Most of the fans are underestimating the champion and overrating the contender. It would be well to remember the words of Thomas E. Ryan when planning his bet: "Said Thomas at Summit, N. J., yesterday to Mann."

"You can't settle down to dreaming in these times with Louis. No matter about Louis being this or Louis being that, he is a pretty darned good fighter."

Zano Loses Fight In Albany Ring
Tommy Zano, Kingston's 142 pound professional welterweight boxer, lost an unpopular decision to Mendel Rocco, 143, of Amsterdam, Monday night in the six round semi-final on the card at Odd Fellows' Hall, Albany.

The Associated Press said Rocco was given the fight on his strong showing in the sixth round. For five rounds Zano carried the battle to the upstart, concentrating on his midsection with a hard attack.

Zano was promised a main bout at the Albany Club if he got by Rocco, and made a strong bid for victory.

Rickey Plans Pirates on Top
Winter Haven, Fla., Feb. 22 (AP)—Branch Rickey, general manager of the St. Louis National League Club's baseball system, turned up today with an "open paper" rating that placed the Pittsburgh Pirates on top of the National League heap. He put his own St. Louis Cardinals in seventh place.

Rickey came here to assist in directing the Cardinals' baseball school where more than 150 young players have gathered.

Cooper Back At Big Winner
New Orleans, La., Feb. 22 (AP)—Harry Cooper was back in the groove again today—the leading money winner of the winter professional golf tour and owner of the lowest stroke average.

The dynamic Chicopee, Mass., player yesterday pocketed first money of $1,200 after winning the $5,000 Crescent City open tournament with a 285 total—three shots under a par.

NEW YORK TERRIER TOPS SPICYPIECE
Boston, Feb. 22 (AP)—H. Glynn, a white and brown wire-haired fox terrier bitch, last night accounted for the first upset of the two-day Eastern Dog Club show by going for best of breed over an entry of 71 terriers that included Ch. Lornell Spicypiece, 1937 winner of New York's Westminster show.

Glynn's Golden, whose previous victories was winning best-in-show for its owner, W. L. Lewis, of New York, at Greenwich, Conn., last summer, was in unusually good condition.

OLD FAVORITES IN BACKGROUND FOR CITY CAGE GAMES TONIGHT

Tonight's games in the City Basketball League's schedule at the auditorium will practically decide which teams will be in top place positions for the second half. A most unusual situation has developed, wherein the Forstas and Knights, cellar teams of the first half, are now tied for first place honors in the second half of the league.

With only two games left after tonight's schedule, wins by either Forstas or the Knights will put them in reach of second half championship.

Mirable Defeats Wheeler, Storrance Outpoints Steele Before 700 Fans—Forezzi Gets Win Over Buddy Emerson.

Ralph DiCastro, Italian middleweight favorite from Rome, N. Y., added another scalp to his belt at the municipal auditorium Monday night, outpointing Scheenaday's Tony Viscio in the main five rounder.

The 160-pounder, conqueror of international title-holder Bradley Lewis, last week, gave the 700 boxing fans proof why he's All America champ. In running up his second straight victory here by defeating Viscio, one of the best 159 pounders in the Adirondack A. A. U.

DiCastro, the better boxer of the two, kept his left planted in Viscio's face for the greater part of the five rounds, especially during the fourth and fifth, after testing one of Tony's dynamite lefts in the third frame.

Viscio fought as a converted southpaw last night, and was not as effective against DiCastro as against some of the pugilists he boxed over in running up a string of 22 knockouts while using his left hand stance.

After the bout, Viscio, who was somewhat disturbed by DiCastro's All American reputation, asked for a return engagement with the Rome boy, who meets "on all and probably will be more than agreeable for the rematch."

Cozy Storrance, 147 pounder from DiCastro's stable, outpointed Eddie Steele, Poughkeepsie, William, in their five rounder, but was not impressive as in upstart bouts with pugilists of better reputations than the Bridge City upstart artists.

Storrance displayed some punching power in the third, rocking Steele with an overhand right to the jaw, then following with a left and another right that made him groggy. The upstart did not follow up the advantage, however.

Frankie Mirable, Albany's traveling lightweight, just returned from Europe, defeated Pinkey Wheeler of Rome in five rounds, flooring him once for the count of nine. It was the only knockdown of the night.

Announcer Sam Riving gave the date of the next boxing show in Kingston as Monday night, February 28, promising a card of scraps that would come up in the standard presented weekly at the auditorium.

Charley Forezzi, knocked his standing with Buddy Emerson, by outpointing the St. Remy Diamond Belter in their five rounder. Emerson met the decision in their first meeting, but last night the Albany Buzzsaw, in better physical condition, impressed the officials in the in-fighting to cop the duke.

Don Aiken, 112, Rome, outpointed Leo Saracelli, 112, Albany, in five fast and furious rounds that had the fans on edge.

Joe Tantillo, Highland Hurdene, 143, outpointed Carlo Litz, 130, Albany, three rounds.

Charley "Honeyboy" Rafkins, 132, Saugerties, demolished Billy DeForest, 135, Albany, three rounds.

The officials were Bill Shiner, referee; Jack Finerty and Jerome Robella of Albany, judges; Mort Finch, timekeeper; Samuel J. Ribber, announcer.

New Paltz Pastor Hitler Tries to Wipe Out Masonry Says Fred Snyder

REV. A. H. COONS

The Rev. Alfred H. Coons, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at New Paltz, will be a member of the faculty of the Kingston Standard International Leadership School for Church School Workers. The Rev. Mr. Coons will teach a course in "The Earliest Stories of Jesus," a course which, through a study of the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke (known to Biblical scholars as the Synoptic Gospels), will aim to develop an understanding of the historical value of these earliest sources of our knowledge of the life of Jesus and an understanding of their power in the Christian Church, today as well as long ago.
The Rev. Mr. Coons is well known, being a graduate of Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., and of Hartford Theological Seminary, Hartford, Conn. He possesses a winning personality, and the school counts itself very fortunate to have him as a member of the faculty.
Classes will begin Monday, February 28, at 7:30 p. m. and will continue on the four succeeding Monday evenings.

The efforts of Hitler in Germany and Mussolini in Italy to stamp out Free Masonry in those countries were discussed by Frederick Snyder, world traveler and lecturer, in an address before several hundred Masons on Monday evening in the rooms of Roundout Lodge, No. 313, F. & A. M. Mr. Snyder, who was the guest speaker of the evening not only spoke on Free Masonry but of world events, touching briefly on conditions in Russia, England, Germany and Italy.

Mr. Snyder had been invited to deliver an address before the lodge last evening by W. Kenneth Kukuk, master of the lodge, and following the regular communication of the lodge Mr. Snyder was introduced by Past Master P. H. Carey. Following Mr. Snyder's address refreshments were served and Mr. Snyder replied to a number of questions dealing with affairs in Europe.

During the course of his address Mr. Snyder made it plain that in his opinion Mussolini was no longer all powerful in Italy but was definitely on the way out, while the rising power in that country was the King.
Hitler's power was beginning to wane and that he was not as strong either physically or politically as he was a few years back. He described Hitler as a renegade Catholic who was savagely fighting to exterminate religion of any kind in Germany. Both Hitler in Germany and Mussolini in Italy were bitter against Free Masonry and were doing all in their power to wipe it out of the life of those countries.

Mr. Snyder also touched briefly on conditions in Russia where the Stalinists were doing what they could to stamp out religion, and where Stalin was now indulging in a purge of the country by wiping out by death many of the leaders and generals of the Russian army.

After giving a verbal bird's-eye view of world conditions Mr. Snyder said that we were fortunate to be living today in a country such as ours, but he also believed that this country was facing a serious crisis, probably the most serious in its history. He said that indications pointed to the fact that the great danger portended to the world lay between January 1 and June 1, and we were lucky that June was not far away. He believed that the big man in the news this year would be Vice President Garner who, he said, would lead the attack against nationalism that was launched here.
Mr. Snyder believed that every attempt would be made by those in control in Washington to take over full control of the railroads and public utilities and also to nationalize the insurance companies, but that this step would be heatedly fought.

A new kitchen library recipe book telling how to serve sauerkraut in everything from soup to pie—the 1938 sauerkraut recipe book—will be sent free upon request to Consumers' Information Service, Department of Agriculture and Markets, Albany, N. Y.

Denike Drops Dead In County Jail

Edward Denike, 57, a vagrant who was arrested Monday afternoon on a public intoxication charge shortly after he had completed a 10 day sentence in jail on a similar charge, dropped dead in the lock-up at 7:10 last evening.
Denike was brought in jail Monday afternoon and placed in the section of the jail which is used for city prisoners.
While talking to another prisoner in the cell block Denike suddenly collapsed and Dr. Kenneth H. Leever, jail physician, was summoned. After an examination he pronounced the man dead from a heart attack.
When Denike collapsed the other prisoner gave the alarm and Night Jailor Lyman Ellis rushed to the cell after calling the jail physician.
When Denike appeared in city court 10 days ago he stated he intended to make application for admission to the City Home, as he claimed Kingston then was his residence. Sheriff Moynihan got in touch with a relative and called Coroner Howard D. Huniston of Kerhonkson. The body was taken in charge by Mr. Huniston and taken to Kerhonkson for funeral arrangements.
